

The Daily Courant.

Friday, June 15. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 16.

Turin, May 27.

THE Advices from the Enemy own they lost in the late Action with Collonel Pfeffercorn, Lieutenant-General Vaubecourt, 400 Horse, and 50 Officers of which 11 are brought Prisoners hither. A few Days ago were brought hither a Collonel of Horse, a Captain, a Cornet, and another Officer, whom one of our Collonels with his Regiment had surpriz'd in the Night at Castel-Alfiero, and who at the same time kil'd several Horse, and brought off 40 Horses. Some of our Parties have penetrated into the Montferrat and the Alexandrin, to levy Contributions, and are come back with several Hostages. The Enemy have laid up a great Magazine of Meal at Crescentino: Most of their Troops that were in the Montferrat, and in the Neighbourhood of Vercelli, are marching towards Tontaneto, where they give out they will form an Army: This will oblige our Troops to march out of their Quarters, to encamp and form our Army; and some of them are already in Motion towards Chivas. 'Tis reported, that part of the French Troops that were at Pignerol, are to march into Languedoc. A Party of our Hussars having defeated one of the Enemy's Parties near Trino, return'd hither yesterday with 40 Horses, which they took in that Action.

Loufanne, June 4. The Princess of Soissons, Sister of Prince Eugene of Savoy, who had been in a very languishing Condition 18 Months, died at Morges the 30th of last Month, when she was preparing to return to this place, which she had resolv'd to make her Place of Residence from the Time the French oblig'd her to quit her usual Abode at Moutiers in the Tarantaise. This Princess is generally lamented, for her many Virtues. The Regents of the Canton of Berne had order'd all their Bayliffs to accompany her Corpse hither; but Monsieur de Mellaredé has thought fit to cause it to be carried from Morges to Thonon. All her Household will remain here some Weeks; expecting Orders from the Duke of Savoy or Prince Eugene.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, March 16.

Basil, June 7. They write from Italy, that the Prince of Vaudemont considering that the Prisoners taken from the Duke of Savoy, and dispers'd into divers Places of the Milanese between the Sesia and the Tesino, par-rowly escap'd being retaken in the Incurfion lately made by General Fels and Collonel Pfeffercorn, has caus'd them all to be conducted to Milan; and has divided them into 2 Bodies, which he designs to send by several Routes, one to the Rhine the other to the Netherlands, where 'tis said they are to be distributed among the Troops of France. Those that have seen the Recruits sent from France to Italy, report they are most of them unfit for Service. We have receiv'd Advice, that the chief Prisoners who lately escap'd out of the Castle of Pierre Encise at Lyons, were Count de la Barre a Savoyard, Monsieur de la Place Treasurer of St. Julien near Geneva, and the Chevalier de Marfontaine a Gentleman of Macon. They had all the good Fortune to get out of the Kingdom after 3 Day's Journey through very difficult Ways. We are inform'd their Design was not to kill Monsieur de Manville, Governour of the said Castle, but only to secure him, as they did the Soldiers of the Guard by binding them; but the Governour making an Outcry notwithstanding all their Threats, they were oblig'd to dispatch him with a Poyard. Before they came out of the Castle, they open'd the Prison Doors, and told the Prisoners that are there for Religion they might go out if they would, but only one of those Prisoners would stir: Whereupon they made fast all the Doors agen, as also the outer-Gate, and carried the Keys off with them.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 16.

Amsterdam, June 16. The Advices from Saxony of the 10th Instant tell us, a Line is begun to be form'd on the Frontiers of Lusace; and that all the Saxon Regiments are order'd to move out of their Quarters. The first Encampment will be at Goerlitz, where King Augustus will arrive the 20th of this Month, to take a Review of them. The Sweeds continue posted along the Viadre, and in Upper Poland. 'Tis reported they have brought over the Cardinal Primate to their Interest, and that they have engag'd him to crown the new King Stanislaus, notwithstanding the Menaces of the Court of Rome; but the Court of King Augustus depend upon it the Pope will by his Nuncio declare that Action of Crowning the said Pretender to be null and invalid.

An Envoy from the Czar of Muscovy, is with King Augustus of Poland at Careisbad; whence 'tis advis'd, That the Czar is at Witepsk in Lithuania, and is making great Preparations to attack Riga vigorously.
